Active members of High School FFA Chapters (9th grade and above) who are continuing their supervised agricultural experience program are eligible. Members of both the 4-H youth development program and FFA must be in good standing with their respective organizations.
14. CODE OF ETHICS

Believing it is in the best interest of all junior exhibitors to maintain a reputation of integrity and to present a wholesome and progressive image, the Lincoln County Fair sets forth the following regulation: 4-H and FFA members are expected to conduct themselves according to the best traditions of their respective organizations. Inappropriate conduct (drinking, vandalism, stealing and indiscreet behavior) WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. Any violation of this rule will be grounds for disqualifying the exhibitor and/or livestock involved. Further, any premium monies and/ or awards earned will be forfeited.

15. CHECK-IN WITH SUPERINTENDENTS

Upon arrival at the fairground, contact should be made with the Breeding Livestock Superintendent for your division. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to have their entries checked in with the superintendents listed in the show books.

16. SHOWING

- a. Uncontrollable animals or animals which the exhibitor cannot handle alone, may be disqualified by the Superintendent and required to leave the ring.
- b. In cases where a member has more than one animal in a class, another junior exhibitor must show the animal.
- c. Minimal assistance is allowed by another junior exhibitor at the discretion of the superintendent.

17. PUBLIC RELATIONS

All stalls and pens must be cleaned before 8:00 a.m. each day and refuse deposited as directed by the superintendent. No advertising of feeds or other agricultural products will be permitted in or around the grounds or stalls. All cots, bedding, and other personal belongings must be kept out of the aisles and stalls between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Behavior of exhibitors will influence public opinion of their organizations. They are expected to conduct themselves in a proper manner.

18. COMPLIANCE REGULATIONS

Any exhibitor who refuses to parade their animal(s) when asked to do so by the superintendent in charge, or who otherwise disobeys rules in the fair book, will thereby forfeit their right to exhibit and any premium they may already have won. All livestock exhibits will be exhibited at the sole risk of the exhibitor.
