Breeding Swine - Karen Crouch & Tess Crouch

Breeding Sheep - Sharon Keim & Tricia Schniedermeyer

Poultry - Debbie King & Amanda Schieffer

Rabbits - Ruth Louks

Livestock Chairman - Bill Kamler

Junior exhibitors in any county of Missouri may exhibit BREEDING STOCK in the Lincoln County Fair Junior Breeding Shows provided that the exhibitor's home county also provides this option to Lincoln County Junior exhibitors.

1. All exhibitors must comply with the general rules and regulations and Animal Health Requirements for Exhibition in this Premium Book.
2. "All entries for livestock exhibition MUST BE REGISTERED ONLINE AT <https://lincmobl.fairmanager.com> between June 6 and June 29, 2022. Registration closes at 5:00 p.m. on June 29, 2022. Entry fee will be paid through PayPal by credit or debit card."
3. No breeding livestock will be allowed on the grounds prior to 8:00 a.m. on Friday, July 15.
 - a. SWINE must be penned and ready for check-in from 9:00-11:00 a.m. Show begins at 12:00 p.m.
 - b. CATTLE arrive from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. on Friday, July 15. Check in by 9:30 a.m.
 - c. SHEEP arrive by 12:00 p.m. (noon) on Friday, July 15. Check in by 1:00 p.m.
4. All Health Papers and registration papers are to be delivered to the Livestock Superintendent or Veterinarian at check-in.
5. Each Exhibitor will be expected to keep their pens and areas clean. Sawdust will be provided in cattle barn. However, exhibitors are still responsible for keeping the exhibit area clean and orderly. No straw bedding will be allowed in cattle barn.
6. Abuse of animals will not be tolerated. Should an abuse be observed toward an animal, either in the barn or in the show ring, superintendent has the authority to dismiss/disqualify animal and exhibitor from the show.
7. No assistance in showing animals will be allowed in classes unless approved by the show officials.
8. Swine Breeding Shows will be at 12:00 p.m. on Friday July 15.
Cattle Breeding Show will 3:00 p.m. on Friday, July 15 or immediately following the Swine Show. Release date and time for the Swine and Cattle Junior Breeding Show is Friday, July 15 at the conclusion of the respective show.
Sheep Breeding Shows will be on Saturday, July 16, starting at 9:00 a.m.
Sheep will be eligible for release at the conclusion of the Sheep Breeding Show.
9. No grooming chutes will be allowed in the show barns except day of show.
10. If there are two or less exhibitors in one breed, they will be shown in a combined class at the discretion of the show committee.
11. Errors in premium payments not reported to Lincoln County Fair by August 31, will stand as paid.

12. No dogs are allowed on the Fairgrounds.

13. ELIGIBILITY OF 4-H & FFA MEMBERS

4-H members who have passed their 8th birthday and not passed their 19th birthday before January 1 of the current program year are eligible. Active members of High School FFA Chapters (9th grade and above) who are continuing their supervised agricultural experience program are eligible. Members of both the 4-H youth development program and FFA must be in good standing with their respective organizations.

14. CODE OF ETHICS

Believing it is in the best interest of all junior exhibitors to maintain a reputation of integrity and to present a wholesome and progressive image, the Lincoln County Fair sets forth the following regulation: 4-H and FFA members are expected to conduct themselves according to the best traditions of their respective organizations. Inappropriate conduct (drinking, vandalism, stealing and indiscreet behavior) WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. Any violation of this rule will be grounds for disqualifying the exhibitor and/or livestock involved. Further, any premium monies and/ or awards earned will be forfeited.

15. CHECK-IN WITH SUPERINTENDENTS

Upon arrival at the fairground, contact should be made with the Breeding Livestock Superintendent for your division. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to have their entries checked in with the superintendents listed in the show books.

16. SHOWING

- a. Uncontrollable animals or animals which the exhibitor cannot handle alone, may be disqualified by the Superintendent and required to leave the ring.
- b. In cases where a member has more than one animal in a class, another junior exhibitor must show the animal.
- c. Minimal assistance is allowed by another junior exhibitor at the discretion of the superintendent.

17. PUBLIC RELATIONS

All stalls and pens must be cleaned before 8:00 a.m. each day and refuse deposited as directed by the superintendent. No advertising of feeds or other agricultural products will be permitted in or around the grounds or stalls. All cots, bedding, and other personal belongings must be kept out of the aisles and stalls between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Behavior of exhibitors will influence public opinion of their organizations. They are expected to conduct themselves in a proper manner.

18. COMPLIANCE REGULATIONS

Any exhibitor who refuses to parade their animal(s) when asked to do so by the superintendent in charge, or who otherwise disobeys rules in the fair book, will thereby forfeit their right to exhibit and any premium they may already have won. All livestock exhibits will be exhibited at the sole risk of the exhibitor.

19. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE ABOVE REGULATIONS AND SPECIES REGULATIONS, WILL RESULT IN THE FORFEITURE OF ANY AND ALL PREMIUMS WON.
